Citation

SEATINI Uganda has ably advocated for issues regarding tax administration and has made significant contribution to tax policy formulation in Uganda.

SEATINI Uganda has enacted initiatives to support revenue administration and policy formulation in Uganda. These include but are not limited to capacity development through training of over 300 civil society actors on Tax Justice and bottlenecks within tax systems and provides and provides alternative policy proposals for domestic revenue mobilization, allocation and utilization at local, national, regional and international level.

Furthermore, SEATINI Uganda is actively engaged in revenue mobilization engagements, working with URA to advance creation and adoption of progressive tax policies in Uganda.

We greatly value this strategic support provided by SEATINI Uganda. For this, we recognize them for their commitment in helping Ugandans honor their tax obligations. – Uganda Revenue Authority

Matia Kasaija, Minister of State for Investment and Privatisation, Hon. Evelyn Anite, Minister of State for Finance, Hon. Henry Musasizi among others posing for a group photo at the Tax Payers Appreciation Gala held at URA Headquarters

Through the different programs, SEATINI Uganda has collaborated with URA, Ministry of Finance, Planning and Economic, Ministry of Trade, Industry and Cooperatives, among other MDAs and stakeholders. "We would like to thank URA for recognizing SEATINI Uganda and our efforts towards deepening tax payer education.

“ As SEATINI Uganda, we are of the philosophy that the only sustainable way to finance our development aspirations is through taxation. We strive to advocate for a fair and equitable tax system where everyone pays their fair share of taxes for the government to raise the much-needed revenue to be able to provide social services to the citizens, ”
” Ms. Jane Nalunga, Executive Director, SEATINI Uganda.

The Tax Payers' Appreciation Gala marks the climax of a series of events that URA has been undertaking to celebrate 30 years of existence. During this Gala, various key strategic partners, individuals, MDAs and companies were recognized for their unwavering support and efforts have been instrumental in the realization of URA's vision and mandate over the last 30 years. SEATINI Uganda is committed to advancing the Tax Justice agenda in Uganda and advocating for a Tax System that works for everyone especially the ordinary citizens.
